

The Queensland Branch of the RSCDS invites you to the 40th Australian Winter School in Brisbane from 5 – 11 July 2015.

Promises to be a Gem of a celebration

- Enjoy a week of Scottish Country Dancing and other social activities in the spirit of friendship, geniality and liveliness;
- Enhance or expand your dancing skills through the expertise and guidance of experienced international and local teachers;
- Skilled musicians will ensure that classes and evening dancing events are enjoyed to the fullest;
- Participate either as a resident at the very comfortable accommodation on offer, or as a commuter;
- Meet up with friends and make new friends;
- Take extra time and make a holiday in the surrounding areas – the Gold Coast, Sunshine Coast, the hinterlands or even the Darling Downs and Granite Belt; and
- Winter in Brisbane can be cold but a most enjoyable time of our year.

Keep a watch for further information.
